

The Mayday Hills Ghost Story Competition Rules

1. This competition involves live performance of an original horror story on stage. Your performance must be no more than 15 minutes duration. No exceptions.
2. You must be an Australian or New Zealand citizen or resident to enter.
3. Performances must fall into the 'horror' category to be eligible. Scare us.
4. Any participant who sends their work as part of this competition certifies and guarantees that they are the exclusive and sole author and do not directly and/or indirectly violate any rights of third parties or that they hold all the rights above, or that they have obtained the necessary authorisations for the use of the works of which they are not the author. Any entry must also send copies of the rights for third-party material to the organisers to be eligible.
5. Any participant in the competition accepts, if selected, they are required to perform their story the evening of the competition in Beechworth, Victoria.
7. Creativity, style, originality and performance will all be considered by the judging panel when selecting winners.
8. For your story to be eligible, you will need to officially enter by filling out the Entry Form (below) and by submitting the form and your story electronically to editor@cohesionpress.com
9. Entries will be judged, and finalists selected from all entries. All selected finalists will be notified by email and/or telephone call
10. Participation in this competition implies the acceptance of these rules in their entirety. Violation of these rules will result in the disqualification of the entry.
